

Mediumship Matters Podcast Transcripts

Season 3 Episode 56 - My Spirit Stories Part 2

Welcome to Mediumship Matters!

Hello and welcome to Mediumship Matters with me, Hannah Macintyre! How are you doing? Today, I'm diving into another round of Spirit Stories—but this time, I want to focus on some of the more practical and unexpected ways spirit helps us in daily life. Mediumship isn't always about grand, profound messages—it can be about finding lost keys, fixing a broken toilet, or even getting a little nudge to pay attention! So, let's get into it!

Spirit Helps in the Most Practical Ways

◆ The Yurt & The Toilet Disaster

- I was hosting a circle in a beautiful off-grid yurt, when... disaster struck—the toilet was completely full.
- The owners were away, and I was on the verge of cancelling.
- Spirit nudged me: “You can leave if you want, or we can show you how to fix this.”
- They literally guided me like a game of hot and cold—leading me to the hidden waste disposal hatch and a spare empty cartridge.
- It was messy, it was grim—but spirit saved the day!

💡 “Spirit isn't just about light and love—they'll help you deal with the crap too—literally!”

◆ Rotting the Drains & Spirit's Brutal Honesty

- Another time, I was dealing with a nasty blocked drain, and spirit chimed in: “You don't need a plumber... but you will need to stick your arm in.”
- They laughed at me the whole time as I reluctantly reached in elbow-deep—but they were right!
- Job done, no expensive call-out fees, just a slight loss of dignity.

💡 “Spirit will help, but they won't always make it easy!”

◆ The Branch That Saved the Day

- Someone dumped a six-foot tree branch in my driveway—typical, right?
- I moaned, but spirit had a plan.
- Days later, I locked myself out of my house.
- Spirit guided me to climb over a gate, grab the branch, and fish my key through a vent.
- That “annoying” branch turned out to be exactly what I needed.

💡 “Sometimes the things that frustrate us the most are actually gifts in disguise.”

Mediumship Matters Podcast Transcripts

Spirit Knows When to Intervene

♦ The Hairdresser & The Urgent Message

- While getting my hair done, I suddenly felt spirit energy thick in the air.
- My hairdresser mentioned her mum had fallen but was 'probably fine'.
- Spirit wasn't having it—lights flickered, the radio turned up and down, and the energy got heavier.
- Every time I said, "You need to go check on her," the lights flashed again!
- Eventually, she left—just in time to be with her mum after she'd suffered a stroke.

💡 "Spirit will do everything they can to get a message through—but we have to listen."

♦ A Rare Spontaneous Spirit Visit

- I was delivering food to an elderly man, Mr. Howarth, whose wife had recently passed.
- As I stood in his kitchen, the atmosphere completely changed—I could feel his wife's presence.
- She showed me pink flowers surrounding him, telling me how much she loved him.
- I hesitated, then finally shared the message.
- He led me outside—there was a huge pink-flowered shrub he had just moved to where he could see it.
- Then he told me—his wife had been a spiritualist and Reiki master.

💡 "Spirit rarely 'interrupts' unless they know it's safe—and in this case, it was exactly what he needed."

Understanding Spirit's Role—Lessons from My Journey

♦ Jesus & The Most Unexpected Mediumship Experience

- I used to be super uncomfortable with religious figures in mediumship.
- During an Angelic Reiki course, I randomly pulled Jesus as my Ascended Master—three times in a row.
- The energy was overwhelming—pure love, pure light.
- He told me: "I will teach you how to heal through love—not just your hands."
- My entire perspective on healing and spirit work changed that day.

💡 "Sometimes, the guides we resist the most are the ones we need the most."

♦ Spooky Graveyard Ghost Hunt That Went Nowhere

- My friend Abby and I went ghost hunting in a graveyard with an EMF meter.
- We wandered around in the dark, whispering "Hello? Is anyone there?"
- ...Nothing. Not a peep.
- Then spirit bluntly told me: "We're not here. We're with our loved ones."
- Lesson learned: Spirit doesn't hang around cemeteries just because their body is there!

💡 "Ghost stories are fun, but spirit has no reason to linger by old bones."

Final Thoughts – Spirit Helps, But You Have to Listen!

💡 Key takeaways: ✅ Spirit helps with the practical stuff too—if you're open to receiving it. ✅

Sometimes what seems like a problem is actually part of the plan. ✅ Energy is everything—spirit will always try to guide you, but free will is still in play. ✅ Our understanding of spirit evolves—stay open to new insights. ✅ Don't be afraid to laugh along the way—spirit has a great sense of humour!

I hope you've enjoyed these real-life spirit stories—some messy, some miraculous, but all absolutely brilliant. Let me know your thoughts, and if you've had a practical spirit intervention, I'd love to hear about it!

And as always—have a bloody marvellous day! 🚀