Season 3 Episode 63 - Interview With Medium Tammy Petruccelli

Welcome to Mediumship Matters!

Hello and welcome to Mediumship Matters with me, Hannah Macintyre! Today, I have an incredible guest for you—Tammy Petruccelli. Tammy is a Reiki Master, psychic medium, author, and spiritual teacher, and she has such an inspiring journey to share. We first met at Arthur Findlay College years ago, and I'm so excited to have her here today!

Tammy's Journey – From Reiki to Mediumship

- ◆ Tammy's path into mediumship started with Reiki—she opened a healing centre and quickly realised she was receiving messages for her clients during sessions.
- ◆ At first, she thought she was just very intuitive—but the messages kept coming, stronger and clearer.
- ◆ One session changed everything—she saw visions of a client's adopted daughters, which was the undeniable proof she needed that spirit was communicating through her.
- 💡 "I thought I was just a clever woman—turns out, I was actually a medium!"

Her Midlife Awakening – Writing Her Book

Tammy documented her experiences in her book, A Midlife Awakening.

- ◆ A psychic reading in her 50s predicted she would become a professional medium—something she dismissed at the time.
- ◆ That prediction came true, and she found herself teaching, channeling, and writing about her journey.
- ◆ The book shares her personal transformation, spontaneous channeling experiences, and messages from Ascended Masters.
- 💡 "I started documenting my experiences—and before I knew it, I had a book!"

Manifesting a Life of Travel & Spiritual Exploration

- ◆ Tammy manifested a life of travel and spiritual experiences.
- ◆ She has travelled to Brazil, India, Ireland, England, Italy, Egypt, and Spain for spiritual development and healing.
- ◆ A trip to John of God in Brazil led her to profound healing insights—later helping her on her own cancer healing journey.
- ◆ She is now cancer-free, having taken an alternative healing route—spirit assured her she would heal naturally and share her knowledge with others.
- 💡 "Spirit told me I would be fine, but I had to share my journey—and that's exactly what I've done."

The Power of Spiritual Retreats & Teaching

◆ Tammy now hosts spiritual retreats around the world, with a special love for Glastonbury and Ireland.

- ◆ Her trips include sacred sites, Celtic shamanic work, and deep energy activations.
- ◆ She has studied with John Holland, Tony Stockwell, and Janet Nohavec, further refining her mediumship and teaching skills.

💡 “The best way to develop is through real-life experiences—spiritual trips change lives.”

Tammy’s Advice for Developing Mediums

- ◆ Start by understanding the clairs—what are your strongest abilities? ◆ Strengthen what comes naturally but also work on your weaker clairs to build a well-rounded practice. ◆ Trust yourself—you’re not making it up! ◆ Practice with acquaintances—people you know but don’t know everything about to test your abilities.

💡 “The more you trust yourself, the stronger your connection to spirit becomes.”

Extraordinary Spirit Encounters

Tammy shared one of her most powerful spiritual experiences:

- ◆ During a Reiki session, she witnessed nine angels enter the room—four kneeling on either side of her client, and one golden angel floating above. ◆ When she asked who they were, she heard: “I am Gabriel. We came because he asked.” ◆ The client later confirmed he had been praying for angelic intervention for an entire week. ◆ As Tammy moved around the healing table, she could physically feel the angels’ energy—a mind-blowing moment of proof that prayer and intention truly work.

💡 “When you ask for spirit’s help, they always answer.”

Platform Mediumship & Public Readings

- ◆ Tammy loves platform mediumship—but COVID disrupted many live events. ◆ She previously worked in wineries, country clubs, and psychic dinners but is now looking to restart public demonstrations.

- ◆ She also teaches development circles online and hosts private group readings.

💡 “Platform mediumship is electric—it’s the best way to experience spirit energy in a crowd!”

End-of-Life Doula Work – Supporting Transitions

- ◆ Tammy also works as an end-of-life doula, supporting people as they transition.
- ◆ This work has given her profound insights into the afterlife, which she brings into her readings.
- ◆ She sees spirit arrive in the final days before passing and helps families understand the process as a peaceful transition.

💡 “Death isn’t an ending—it’s a return to love and spirit.”

Moonstruck TV & Psychic Readings

- ◆ Tammy hosts a weekly 15-minute show on Moonstruck TV & A1R Psychic Radio.
  - ◆ She gives mini-readings and discusses spiritual topics in bite-sized episodes.
  - ◆ You can watch her past episodes on moonstruck.tv!
- 💡 “Short, powerful messages can shift someone’s entire perspective.”

Final Thoughts – Trust, Manifest, and Evolve

Tammy’s journey is proof of the power of spirit, trust, and manifestation.

- 💡 Key takeaways: ✓ Mediumship often unfolds unexpectedly—trust the process.
- ✓ Manifestation works when you make space for it.
- ✓ Healing is a combination of spirit, energy work, and self-care.
- ✓ Spirit always answers when we call on them—be open to how they respond.

A massive thank you to Tammy Petrucelli for this incredible conversation!
