

Mediumship Matters Podcast Transcripts

Season 5 Episode 20 - Live Mediumship Demonstration

May 2024

Spirit Messages, Mediumship in Action & Working with Energy

Hello and welcome to Mediumship Matters with me, Hannah Macintyre! Tonight, we're diving into a live demonstration of mediumship, and I'm so excited to be sharing this space with you all. Thank you for showing up and being a part of this connection with spirit.

How My Mediumship Works

If you've seen different mediums work, you'll know that every medium works slightly differently. Here's what you can expect from me:

- Spirit doesn't have a voice box anymore, so they don't speak to me like a normal conversation. Instead, they send energy, emotions, and impressions, which I translate into words.
- Mediumship is an experiment—we never know exactly how it's going to work.
- My aim is to be specific enough so that the connection is clear, but it may not always be exactly as you expect.
- If something resonates, use the raise hand function so I can find who the message is for.
- When I work with you, please come off mute and respond, but don't feed me information—just yes, no, or maybe.
- If something isn't right, tell me! Spirit is never wrong, but I may need to adjust the details or the message placement.

Let's begin!

A Grandfather Figure with a Mischievous Streak

The first energy stepping forward is a gentleman who feels like a grandfather, but with a fatherly role—he may have raised you or been particularly close. He has a mischievous, fun-loving personality, and I see him spending a lot of time outdoors, gardening, or working in a shed or workshop.

- He was independent and stubborn, never wanting a fuss.
- He may have had problems with his right leg or foot.
- He spent a period living alone after his wife passed.
- He had strong morals and was incredibly proud of his family.
- I'm being shown a scrappy piece of paper he kept—perhaps a note written by a loved one.

Does this resonate with anyone? Lee raises her hand.

- As I connect with Lee, we validate that her grandfather, who raised her like a father, fits this description. He was cheeky but principled, and yes—he had issues with his leg. Most importantly, he wants her to know: he is proud of her. He hears her wondering if she's made him proud, and the answer is a resounding yes.

Mediumship Matters Podcast Transcripts

A Young Woman in Spirit – Before & After

Next, I have a young woman stepping forward. She passed in her late teens or early twenties, but she is presenting as a younger version of herself—perhaps before a difficult period in her life.

- There was a battle with mental health.
- She may have struggled with addiction or fallen in with the wrong crowd.
- She wants to be remembered as she was before things got difficult—full of life, fun, and light.
- She has siblings still here, and she's acknowledging her continued presence with the family.
- She's showing me a tattoo in her memory.

Brittany raises her hand.

As we connect, Brittany confirms this is her sister, who she always saw as her baby, like a daughter. She has had tattoos in her sister's memory, and she's been developing her own mediumship—her sister is pushing her forward on this path. Spirit always brings the right messages at the right time!

A Loving Mother Figure – The Heart of the Family

Now I have a warm and nurturing lady—she feels like a mother or grandmother. She was the heart of the home, caring for everyone, cooking, cleaning, and always putting family first.

- She wore similar outfits every day, perhaps a collection of skirts and blouses.
- She struggled with her feet—maybe needing special shoes or slippers.
- She ignored her own health issues to care for others.
- She had strong faith and was at peace with her passing.
- Someone in the family still has her ring.

Catherine raises her hand.

Catherine confirms this is her grandmother, a woman who travelled, cared deeply for family, and had an impressive collection of Tupperware. Most importantly, her love continues in the spirit world, and she's supporting Catherine in her own healing and mediumship journey.

A Husband Taken Too Soon

Next, I have a gentleman stepping forward who passed suddenly, likely from a heart attack. It was completely unexpected—one moment he was here, and the next he was gone.

- He left plans unfinished, which frustrated him.
- He had older children or young adult children.
- His passing was a huge shock for his wife and family.
- Football was important to him, and there may have been a football tribute at his funeral.

Rob and Lee both raise their hands.

As I connect, it seems spirit has orchestrated a collaboration—Rob's grandfather and Lee's friend's husband are working together to bring messages through. This is why mediumship is always an experiment! Both men are stepping forward to let their loved ones know they are still present, still watching over their families, and still connected.

Mediumship Matters Podcast Transcripts

A Little Baby Boy in Spirit

Finally, I have a baby boy who passed shortly after birth. He was born unwell and fought to stay, but ultimately, he moved into spirit.

- He was tiny, possibly premature.
- He had medical intervention, perhaps surgery or time in an incubator.
- He was laid to rest in soft, comfortable clothes.
- A memorial space has been created for him.
- He has sent a sibling to his family—a baby that is either recently born or on the way.
- There is a connection to the name Ben.

Binky raises her hand.

Binky connects with some details but not all, so we hold space for this message. Sometimes, spirit brings through messages that make sense later—and that's okay. If this resonates with someone listening back, please know that this little soul is still present, still loved, and watching over his family.

Final Thoughts

This evening was a beautiful blend of love, validation, and spirit connection. Thank you to everyone who showed up and worked with me—spirit always knows what they're doing!

- Trust in your intuition—spirit will always guide you.
- If something resonated but didn't fully land yet, give it time.
- Thank you for being part of this incredible journey.

Until next time—trust spirit, trust yourself, and keep evolving.

Love,

Hannah x

Keywords for SEO: Mediumship demonstration, spirit communication, live mediumship reading, evidential mediumship, connecting with loved ones, messages from spirit, how mediumship works, developing mediumship skills, spiritual connection, grief healing through mediumship.